

OFFSHORE SAFETY AWARDS

Terms & Conditions 2017

All third party nominations must be made with the full knowledge and co-operation of the nominee.

A judging panel will be appointed to make an assessment of all entries to the awards, and to draw up a shortlist in each category.

All shortlisted candidates will be reviewed and assessed by the judging panel and a category winner will be chosen.

The winners will be, in the opinion of the judges, the entries which demonstrate the greatest fulfillment of the category criteria.

The judges' decision is final and binding; no correspondence will be entered into. A maximum of three finalists will be shortlisted for each award and finalists will be notified by the end of June 2017.

By entering you agree to supply any additional information requested.

Entrants consent to this information being made available to judges and third parties associated with the awards.

The finalists and winners agree to take part and assist with any promotional activities or PR supporting the awards.

No responsibility will be taken by Oil & Gas UK or Step Change in Safety, or any sponsors or companies associated with the awards, for delayed, lost or damaged entries.

Oil & Gas UK and Step Change in Safety, or any sponsors or companies associated with the awards regret that entries cannot be returned.

The prizes are as detailed, no alternatives or variations are offered and you cannot transfer the prize.

Winners will not be announced until the day of the Awards on Wednesday 23 August 2017, at Aberdeen Exhibition and Conference Centre.

The closing date for entries is 26 May 2017 extended to 2 June 2017. Entries received after this date may not be entered into the Awards.
